

Vesper Propers, September 1, 2019
Twelfth Sunday after Pentecost

The Beginning of the Church Year (“Indiction”). The First Ecumenical Council (325) decreed that the Church’s year should begin on September 1. The lunar month corresponding to September on the Jewish calendar was the beginning of the civil year (cf Exodus 12:2); it was at this time that our Lord Jesus went into the synagogue at Nazareth and read the words of the prophet Isaiah, “The Spirit of the Lord is upon me...to proclaim ‘the acceptable year of the Lord.’” (Isaiah 61:1-2; Luke 4: 16-21).

Our venerable father Simeon the Stylite and his mother. Simeon lived near Antioch in Syria. He was a monk, who lived for many years standing atop a column (in Greek, a stylus), hence he received the nickname "Stylite.” His life and admirable conversation were remarkable. (459)

Cantor: (Tone 1) If you, O Lord, should mark our guilt, Lord, who would survive?
(on 6) But with you is found forgiveness: for this we revere you.

Stichera of the New Year - Tone 1 samohlasen

We pray to the Cre - a - tor to - day with the words giv - en us by Christ, who taught us to pray each day: Our Fa - ther, who are in heav - en, give us this day our dai - ly bread, and o - ver - look all our sins.

Cantor: My soul is waiting for the Lord. I count on his word.
(on 5) My soul is longing for the Lord more than watchman for daybreak.
All repeat "We pray to the Creator..."

Cantor: Let the watchman count on daybreak,
(on 4) and Israel on the Lord.

On Mount Si - nai you gave stone tab - lets. To - day in Nazareth, you read the pro - phe - cy, O Christ our God in the flesh. You took and o - pened the scroll to teach the peo - ple that the Scrip-tures were ful - filled in your - self.

Cantor: Because with the Lord there is mercy and fullness of redemption,
(on 3) Israel indeed he will redeem from all its iniquity.
