Twenty-third Sunday after Pentecost

Our holy father Gregory the Wonder-worker, bishop of Neocaesarea in Pontus, who embraced the Christian faith as a youth, progressed in both human and divine knowledge, was ordained a bishop and was famous for his teaching, virtue and apostolic labors. Because of very many marvels he performed, he is called Wonder-worker/Thaumaturgus. (270)

Doxastikon of our venerable father Gregory the Wonderworker - Tone 6 samohlasen

Gaz - ing stead - fastly in spirit upon Christ our God, you poured out a sea of mira-cles
o-ver us; you changed the liquid nature of wa-ter to stone; you turned the temple guardian away from the dark - ness of er - ror; you per-sua-ded persecutors to be-lieve in the truth and appeared to them as as pil-lar of vir - tues. Cor-rect-ly were you called "won-der-work-er." Thus we en-treat you to ceaselessly intercede on our behalf before the Sa - vior for the sal - va - - tion of our souls.
